

Chiang Mai Cricket League Governing Body

PLAYERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

By agreeing to play in the Chiang Mai Cricket League this season, you have also agreed to abide by the Players' Code of Conduct, whether at training, games, official functions or other occasions. All players must abide by the following:

- Respect the rules of the Chiang Mai Cricket League Governing Body.
- Do not argue with officials. Any disputes or complaints may only be addressed through coaches or match managers and addressed via official league channels.
- Display self control at all times. Verbal abuse of officials, other players, or deliberately distracting or provoking a competitor is neither acceptable nor condoned and will be punished accordingly.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
- Recognise all good performances whether they are by your team members or others.
- Treat all other players as you would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take advantage of another person.
- Co-operate with coaches, team managers, team mates and others.
- Dress appropriately for training and for games.
- Inform the captain or selection committee if you are unavailable to a play a minimum of three (3) days prior to the scheduled game.
- Report ALL injuries to your captain or team manager.
- Pay all fees and subs by the due date. Failure to do so will result in players not being available for selection.
- Carry out reasonable instructions from captains, managers or Committee.
- Conduct yourself at ALL TIMES in a manner that would bring credit to the league, especially when wearing uniform or other identification. Penalties may be handed out to any player who is deemed to be in breach of the Code of Conduct.
